

Donate to InTheFray!

Contributed by ITF Webmaster
 Sunday, August 6, 2006
 Last Updated Tuesday, January 11, 2011

A nonprofit magazine like InTheFray needs your support to keep publishing.

Your journal has a courageous, vibrant life of its own and for this I commend you. The living soul of your journal has inspired and consoled many hearts and minds, perhaps more than you realize. —Michigan reader and donor (name withheld at her request)
 {mosloadposition donate}

InTheFray Magazine keeps publishing thanks to the generous support of readers like you. If you value independent journalism and enjoy reading “stimulating and provocative” articles on issues of identity and community, please consider giving back.

Individual donations are our lifeblood, accounting for the vast majority of our funding every year. Every small amount helps. Every donor is recognized on this page (or anonymously, if you prefer). And every dollar donated to the magazine goes to the work we do — that is, publishing the magazine, paying our writers and artists, and spreading the word about InTheFray.

Please note that In The Fray, Inc., the organization that publishes InTheFray Magazine, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization (EIN/tax ID number: 04-352-0135), so all donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by U.S. federal law. Here is our nonprofit report on Guidestar. If your employer has a program to match donations made to nonprofit organizations, our staff can help you with the paperwork and provide any information that is needed — just let us know. Many companies match donations, and this is an easy way to double the amount of your contribution.

SPECIAL OFFER: Readers who make a donation of US$30 or more can opt to receive an InTheFray coffee mug in the mail.* If you want a coffee mug, please email us to let us know that you want one and where we should mail it.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

You can make contributions online using a credit card or bank account. We recommend that you donate through Google Checkout or PayPal.com. If you use PayPal, you do not need a PayPal account to donate, and PayPal gives you the option of making one-time donations or recurring monthly ones. We also support payments via JustGive.org. Please note that all of these online payment services charge a service fee — typically about 3 percent — for donations made through them. For example, if you made a $100 donation via PayPal, InTheFray would receive $96.80.

Another option is to mail us a check. Please make the check payable to “In The Fray, Inc.” Our mailing address is:

In The Fray, Inc.
 113 Schumacher Dr.

New Hyde Park, NY 11040-3644 NOTE: We typically list the full names of our donors at the bottom of this page. If you would prefer to be listed anonymously or under a different name than what you provided with your donation, please email us using this form. Also, if you want a website to be listed along with your name, please let us know.

We email semiannual updates about the magazine to our donors. You can unsubscribe or change your subscription at any time by using the links in those email updates, or by contacting us with your request. InTheFray is committed to protecting the privacy and security of our readers and donors. You can read our privacy notice in its entirety here.

To learn how to give back to InTheFray by buying books and other items at Amazon and Powells.com, click here.

If you have any questions, please contact us using this form. Thank you for supporting independent media. With your help, we can continue to provoke thoughtful discussion on the issues that too often divide us.

—The Editors

*It generally costs InTheFray $4-6 to ship a coffee mug to a destination within the continental United States; this amount is included in the $30 donation. If you make a donation and receive an InTheFray mug, under U.S. Internal Revenue Service guidelines the amount of the donation that is deductible for federal income tax purposes is limited to the excess of your donation over the fair market value of the mug, which is $2. In other words, you can deduct the amount of your donation minus $2 from your taxes. For donations of $41.50 or more, however, under IRS guidelines the estimated value of the item received (i.e. the mug) is not substantial, so in that case you may deduct the full amount of your donation from your taxes.

HONOR ROLL

We would like to thank the following donors for their kind and generous support of the magazine and its mission to build a world of greater tolerance and understanding. Without your help, this magazine would not be possible.

2009-10 donors Safiya Bandele and ibn Kenyatta

Kenton Beerman
Andrew Blackwell
Jane C. Blackwell
M. Blackwell
Matthew Blackwell
Marguerite Buckman Kearns
Edward Chen
Vincent Chen
Yvonne Cheng
Angie Chuang
Tiffany N. Fletcher
Gary from Pasadena
Benjamin W. Hulse
Akiko Kamada
Yul and Sara Kang
Jennifer Lee and Craig Silverstein
Thomas Lee
Robert L. Lurie
Laura Nathan
Kate S. Pound
Emily Raj
Aaron Richner
Dustin C. Ross
John D. Schmid
James G. Taft
Rose Tantraphol
Van Tran
Alice E. Towey
Jan Vihan and Zuzana Vihanová
Aimee Walker
William Julius Wilson

Our special thanks to Jennifer Lee and Craig Silverstein, Andrew Blackwell, Robert L. Lurie, and James G. Taft for the substantial gifts they made this year to InTheFray. Here is the list of earlier donors.